May 13, 2018 - The Ascension of the Lord

"Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God." - 1 JOHN 4:15

How strong is your faith? When you have an opportunity to either defend or clarify a question about our Catholic faith, do you do it? Or, do you remain silent so that others don't think you are weird? Pray for the courage to be strong in all circumstances and to share your witness with others.

WELCOME TO NEW PARISHIONERS AND VISITORS: If you would like to become a member of the St. John the Apostle Parish Community, please complete a Parish Registration Form (located by the bulletin board near the main door of the Church) and introduce yourself to the priests. Envelopes are assigned to those who request for them. Please pick them up at the church vestibule or at the Parish Office.

THE IMPORTANCE OF PARISH REGISTRATION AND USE OF PARISH SUNDAY ENVELOPES: Some Church goers are requesting from the parish Letters of Good Standing or Reference Letters as part of Baptism and/or Confirmation Sponsor documents or for other religious certifications or wanting their children enter a Catholic Elementary or Secondary School. The only official and ordinary way to obtain them is to register in the parish and the regular use of envelopes so that when the time comes, it will be based on official records. This is to avoid unnecessary frustrations and misunderstandings when one claims that he/she attends Mass but does not use envelopes. Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

Happy Mother's Day
A Prayer for all Mothers

Thank you, Lord, that you fill a mother's heart with love, That you have instilled in her very being the need to protect her children.

Thank you for giving her the gift of nurturing her children, of teaching them, of comforting them, for feeding them and making a safe place for them.

For guiding them to be all that God has created them to be. Fill every mother with love, wisdom and endurance, with strength and patience and joy.

Give them ability to forgive again and again. Enable her to rely on You and call upon You, because You will give her all she needs. In Your precious and all powerful name, Amen.

Please do not read bulletin during Holy Mass! Thank you!

Therese practiced patience

St. Therese of Lisieux strove to practice charity and patience in community life. An elderly nun needed to be taken by someone to the refectory every evening. Therese described the task of helping the nun: "It cost me a good deal to offer my services, for I knew the difficulty, or I should say the impossibility, of pleasing the poor invalid. But I did not want to lose such a good opportunity, for I recalled Our Lord's words: 'As long as you did it to one of these my least brethren, you did it to Me.' I therefore humbly offered my aid. It was not without difficulty I induced her to accept it, but after considerable persuasion I succeeded. Every evening, when I saw her shake her sand-glass, I understood that she meant: 'Let us go!' Summoning up all my courage I rose, and the ceremony began. First of all, her stool had to be moved and carried in a particular way, and on no account must there be any hurry. The solemn procession ensued. I had to follow the good Sister, supporting her by her girdle; I did it as gently as possible, but if by some mischance she stumbled, she imagined I had not a firm hold, and that she was going to fall. 'You are going too fast,' she would say, 'I shall fall and hurt myself!' Then when I tried to lead her more quietly: 'Come quicker . . . I cannot feel you . . . you are letting me go! I was right when I said you were too young to take care of me.'

When we reached the refectory without further mishap, more troubles were in store. I had to settle my poor invalid in her place, taking great pains not to hurt her. Then I had to turn back her sleeves, always according to her own special rubric, and after that I was allowed to go.

But I soon noticed that she found it very difficult to cut her bread, so I did not leave her till I had performed this last service. She was much touched by this attention on my part, for she had not expressed any wish on the subject; it was by this unsought-for kindness that I gained her entire confidence, and chiefly because—as I learnt later—at the end of my humble task I bestowed upon her my sweetest smile."

Therese practiced patience even during the time of meditation. For a long time her place at meditation was near a nun who fidgeted continually, either with her Rosary, or something else. Therese was very quick of hearing, and the noise bothered her. She would have liked to turn round and look at the nun, so to make her stop the noise. But Therese chose to bear the noise tranquilly, both for the love of God and to avoid giving pain. It wasn't easy. During meditation, Therese was bathed in perspiration, and her meditation consisted merely in suffering with patience. Therese strove to take actual pleasure in the disagreeable little noise and treated that as some delightful music. Her meditation was passed in offering this music to Our Lord.

Another time Therese was working in the laundry, and the nun opposite of her, while washing handkerchiefs, repeatedly splashed her with dirty water. Therese's first impulse was to draw back and to wipe her face, so to show the nun that she should behave more quietly. However, Therese decided to make a sacrifice by refraining from betraying her annoyance. On the contrary, she made an effort to welcome the shower of dirty water for half an hour.

A friendly reminder

On the side street of the church, along 39th & Trafalgar, the area between the hydrant and the driveway should be kept clear for those who need it. Thank you.
